

JOZI FILM FESTIVAL

The seventh annual Jozi Film Festival closed on Sunday 30 September 2018 with an awards evening held at The Marabi Club, wrapping four days of film at The Bioscope Independent Cinema and The Olive Tree Theatre. And this year's winner's are:

Best South African Student Film

SKIN DIVER

Dir: Katya Abedian

Best South African Short Fiction Film

MMA MOEKETSI

Dir: Reabetswe Moeti

Best International Short Fiction Film

KYENVU (Uganda)

Dir: Kemiyondo Coutinho

Best South African Documentary

WHISPERING TRUTH TO POWER

Dir: Shameela Seedat

Best International Feature-Length Documentary

THE OSLO DIARIES (Israel/Canada)

Dir: Mor Loushy and Daniel Sivan

Best South African Short Documentary

DULA

Dir: Jasyn Howes

Best International Short Documentary

THE BLACK MAMBAS (USA)

Dir: Bruce Donnelly

Audience Choice Award

SUPA MODO (Kenya)

Dir: Likarion Wainaina

The Discovery Channel "Don't Stop Wondering" Award

BURNING EMBERS

Producer: Didi Exelby

The films were of a very high standard this year and for the first time, JFF would like to make three honourable mentions:

Accelerate

Dir: Dian Weys - short fiction (SA)

A Black Man In Zimbabwe

Dir: Roger Horn – short documentary (SA)

Abu Adnan

Director: Sylvia Le Fanu – short fiction (Denmark)

#welovejozi #welovefilm